Mrs. West has several years of business, teaching, and art experience. She was very excited to open the Prosper Arts Llc studio and offer creative classes to students locally.

COURSE DESCRIPTION (OVERVIEW):

In this class we will create art in the style of anime focusing on human and animal figures. Students may learn to draw characters they already know and create their own through different projects. Each week there will be a short lesson at the beginning of class and a snack in the middle. This class is open to 5th-12th grade and will be split into two tables by age groups if we have a full class.

SYLLABUS/OUTLINE: WEEKLY BREAKDOWN OF PROJECT-BASED LEARNING LAB ACTIVITIES:

Projects each week will be based on students' skill levels and curated to include what students would most like to learn and create. The middle and last weeks of class will be free project weeks where students get to create anything they would like to based on what they have been learning through the semester.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND APPROXIMATE TARGET DATES:

By the end of the semester, students should have all projects complete and there will be an optional "gallery" for students to display their art and see what other classes have created. The gallery will be on a Sunday afternoon- Date and time TBD.

STUDENT ASSESSMENT - what will be used to evaluate student progress and/or end of semester pass/fail status?

- 1) Student agrees to attend at least 80% of class sessions/lessons offered. Attendance is kept online and tracked by Partnership staff. Failure to meet 80% or be on track to meet 80% may result in program discontinuation.
- 2) The Partnership Student Assessment or Performance Form is filled out by the teacher and turned in to Partnership staff. The link to this form is found on the web page for this class. Failing marks for lack of participation, behavior issues, practice time, etc. may result in program discontinuation.

Class-specific assessment:

The Partnership Student Assessment form is filled out by the teacher and turned in to the Partnership staff.
